SHARING COUNTRY

Curated by ADAM KNIGHT

Opening reception:
Thursday 15 June, 5–7pm

Exhibition:
15 June – 23 July, 2017

OLSEN GRUIN is pleased to present “Sharing Country” curated by Adam Knight.

"Sharing Country" show cases works by leading contemporary Aboriginal artists from the most remote desert communities.

Featured artists include Sandy Brumby, Tommy Watson, Joseph Jorra Tjapaltjarri, Iluwanti Ken, Puna Yanima, Tuppy Ngintja Goodwin, Womens Collaborative, Barbara Moore, Tiger Palpatja, Witjiti George, Minnie Pwerle, Kudditji Kngwarreye, Kathy Maringka and Liddy Napanangka Walker.

The quality of these artworks reflects the richness and diversity of Indigenous culture and the distinct differences between tribes, languages, dialects and geographic landscapes. Art has always been an important part of Aboriginal life, connecting past and present, the people and the land, and the supernatural and reality.

Since opening his first art gallery in 1995, Adam Knight has since opened and operated 6 commercial art galleries and influenced the careers of some of the most important Aboriginal artists, including Clifford Possum Tjapaltjarri, Gabriella Possum and Tommy Watson.

Adam has maintained long-term representation with a group of artists that also extends to artistic family members and has developed extensive relationships within the Community Art Centre network and leading Australian auction houses.
